

The unit tests cover all main alert conditions that are in AlertGenerator, the getRecords method in Patient, and data storage in DataStorage. Some parts were not tested, such as the FileDataReader, because it would require actual files to test it. The Main class, and the HealthDataSimulator were also not tested since it generates random data and it runs indefinitely.